4. Decision - making Rights and Responsibilities

4.1 General Principles

- The parents, after giving due consideration to all relevant factors, believe that it is in the best interests of their unemancipated child/ren that the parents have shared decision-making responsibility for major decisions that affect the child/ren.
- Each parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of the child/ren while the child/ren is/are with that parent. Either parent may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the child/ren who is/are currently with that parent.
- The parents shall confer with each other and share decision-making authority with a view toward arriving at major decisions that promote the best interest of their child/ren.
- Neither parent shall unreasonably withhold consent in making such joint decisions nor shall either parent make a major change in the child/ren's situation without agreement of the other parent.
- The parents wish to designate one party to make specific decisions. These decision-making areas shall be listed below.
- The parents understand that a failure to agree permits either of them to initiate the dispute resolution measures (Section 18) agreed to by the parents in this Parenting Plan.
- The parents agree that it is in the best interest of the child/ren that Mother Father will have sole authority to make major decisions for the child/ren.
- Mother Father shall have sole authority to make the following decisions:

- All other major decisions shall be made jointly.
- Each parent shall have access to medical and school records pertaining to the child/ren and be permitted to independently consult with any and all professionals involved with the child/ren. The parents shall cooperate with each other in sharing information related to the health, education and welfare of the child/ren and they shall sign any necessary documentation ensuring that both parents have access to said records.
- Each parent shall be responsible for getting records and reports directly from school and medical care providers.
- Both parents shall have equal and independent authority to confer with the child/ren's school, day care, medical care providers, and other programs with regard to the child/ren's educational, emotional and social progress.

- Both parents shall be listed as “emergency contacts” for the child/ren.
- Parents shall always let each other know their current addresses, home, work and emergency telephone numbers and shall notify each other in writing within 24 hours of any changes.

- Other: _____
- No changes in enrollment or participation shall be made without the consent of both parents.

4.3 Medical

- Unless otherwise noted, the parents shall confer with each other concerning non-emergency medical, psychological, counseling, optical, dental or orthodontic care.
- If there is a dispute regarding the medical, psychological, counseling, optical, dental, or orthodontic care of the child/ren the parents shall defer to the child/ren’s present health care provider and follow his/her advice including the selection of other health care providers.
- The parent arranging a routine medical examination shall give the other parent ____ days notice in advance of the appointment so that the other parent can attend the examination if desired.

- If either parent has any knowledge of any illness, accident, hospitalization or other circumstance seriously affecting the health of the child/ren, that parent shall immediately notify the other parent.

4.4 Extracurricular Activities

- Each parent shall determine the child/ren's non-recurring organized activities, special training and social events while residing with that parent.
- Unless the parents otherwise agree neither shall give permission to the child/ren to engage in social activities that occur while the child/ren is/are with the other parent.
- The parents shall agree before enrolling the child/ren in organized activities such as sports teams, lessons or special training which occur even partially during the other parent's time with the child/ren.
- Each parent shall make a good faith effort to give information to the other parent about events and organized activities in the child/ren's life/lives including school programs, concerts, award ceremonies, plays, sports events and other activities in which the child/ren is/are participating.
- The child/ren shall be involved in the following activities:
